

Ollie and the Lucky Stone

Read the story, circle the correct answer from the two choices below, and color the pictures!

Ollie the otter loved to slide into the river. One day, he found a shiny stone. "This is my lucky stone!" he said. Later, Ollie saw a duckling stuck in the reeds. He used his stone to help push the reeds away. The duckling swam free and quacked, "Thank you!"

Questions:

The otter's name is (Ollie / Ottie).

Ollie found a shiny (leaf / stone).

The duckling quacked, ("Thank you" / "Help.")