

Lucy the Curious Cat

Lucy was a cat.

She was small, soft, and very curious.
She liked to look around. She peeked under chairs.
She sniffed flowers. She followed butterflies.

One sunny day, Lucy saw a butterfly.
It flew over a fence. Lucy jumped up!
She landed on the fence.

The butterfly flew higher.

Lucy climbed up a tree. She could see the whole yard!
She saw the birdbath. She saw her red ball.
She even saw her friend, the puppy next door.

“Hello, Lucy!” barked the puppy. Lucy purred and waved her tail.
Then she jumped down – boop!
Right into a pile of leaves!

Rustle, rustle!

Leaves flew everywhere! Lucy rolled and played and giggled. Being curious was fun.

Every day had something new to see!
